Dramatic Reading and Discussion – To Shut the Mouths of Lions

A photograph of two lions in profile, one in front of the other, looking towards the right. The lion in the foreground is a young lioness, and the one behind it is an adult male with a dark mane. The background is a textured, light-colored wall.

Please join us for a dramatic reading of excerpts from

TO SHUT THE MOUTHS OF LIONS

by playwright Dave Clark.

Meet the McBride family as they come together for the holidays, and as they struggle with familial expectations, attitudes and secrets.

Saturday, June 3rd at 7:00 pm

Trinity United Church
284 Division St, Cobourg

Reading followed by conversation with Dave Clark.

Refreshments served, with free will offering in support of LGBTQ children's and teen's summer camping.
